

Activity Report
Session June 2019- May 2020

Name of the Event: Seminar on Unveiling the Legacy: The Role of Ahoms in Shaping Greater Assam

Date: 29/09/2019

Location: Udalguri College, Udalguri

Objective: The chief objective of this seminar was to embark on a journey through time to explore the remarkable legacy of the Ahom dynasty and their pivotal role in shaping the landscape and culture of Greater Assam. From their humble beginnings as Tai warriors to their establishment of a powerful kingdom, the Ahoms have left an indelible mark on the history and identity of Assam. For a clear understanding of the history of Assam it is imperative to delve deep into the contributions, accomplishments, and enduring influence of Ahoms on the region.

No of Student Participants: 104

Teachers as RPs: 7 (Dr. Nilima Dutta, Sarat Ramchiary, Jwngtima Basumatary)

Outcome: After presentations it came out that the Ahoms played a transformative role in shaping the destiny of Assam, leaving an indelible imprint on its history, culture, and identity. Through their visionary leadership, administrative acumen, and cultural patronage, they laid the foundation for the emergence of Greater Assam as a vibrant and diverse region. Despite facing numerous challenges, including invasions from Mughal forces and internal conflicts, the Ahoms persevered and ruled Assam for nearly 600 years. Their legacy endures in the form of architectural marvels such as the Rang Ghar and Kareng Ghar, as well as in the cultural fabric of Assamese society. Today, the Ahom heritage serves as a source of pride and inspiration for the people of Assam, reminding them of their rich historical roots and the resilience of their ancestors.
