10. How do you rate the overall quality of teaching-learning process in Udalguri college ?

246 responses

It is important to note that three other questions regarding the Year of completion of Graduation, Progression Status of Higher Education, and Present Status of the alumni were asked along with the questionnaires included in the feedback form. It has been found that out of 246 alumni, seven are engaged as Assistant Professors in Colleges, two are engaged as PGT, nineteen are School teachers, one is engaged as Assistant Manager in the Tea Industry, one is posted as an Extension Officer (Industries and Commerce Department, Government of India), one has immigrated to Germany for work, one is engaged as Cabin Crew in Air India, one is working as Associate Project Lead, North East Network (NGO), one is working as a Science Instructor under Agastya International Foundation, two are engaged in their family business and others are pursuing higher education.

Action to be taken:

After analysing the feedback received from the alumni, it has been found that the following actions should be taken to improve the teaching-learning process-

- (a) More opportunities should be provided to the students to develop their personality as well as soft skills.
- (b) Adequate resources for all courses should be available in the college library.
- (c) The overall quality of the teaching-learning process should be improved.
- (d) Teachers should encourage the students to take part in extra-curricular activities.

Concluding Remarks:

The feedback received from the alumni students indicates that most of the alumni students are satisfied with the teaching-learning process, the opportunities provided by the institute and the cooperation received from the teachers during their study period. 50.8% of the alumni students feel proud to be a student of Udalguri College. They agree that teachers are helpful and friendly. They agreed that the sincerity/commitment of the teachers is satisfactory. They also agreed that the college assisted them in achieving their career goals.
