DISCUSSION

Creativity, in general, is defined as, the skill of coming out with new ideas that are surprising, intelligible, and also valuable in someway. Creativity is essential to innovation, novelty, and sustenance. Writing is not just a way of expressing pleasure, but it is also a way of learning and teaching others. Writing skill is one of the essential language skills requires for both academic and professional performance. Developing English as foreign language creative writing skills is an inevitable task. Today, written communication is necessary for social as well as business purposes through platforms such as Google, e- mail, and other applications. Creative writing is more than just a passion; it's a craft for practicing, individual writing awareness, and following effective writing processes all play decisive roles in producing written texts. Teaching creative writing is to encourage the students to write by drawing upon imaginations, and other creative processes may support writing development in all its component as suggested by many great scholars.

OBJECTIVES DISCUSSED

- 1. Creative Writing goal is not just assisting and enabling learning; it can also provide alternative ways of expressing and demonstrating teaching.
- 2. Although many research were carried out in creative writing's field, it still needs more efforts to design and describe new activities accompanied by modern methods and techniques for teaching and assessing creative writing skills.
- 3. Develop 'English As a Foreign Language' (EFL) students' creative writing competence by making a connection between creative writing theory and practice, such as design a plan for intensive multitasks to dedicate more class time to practicing writing.
- 4. The significance of this study arises from its various roles in building and creating positive attitudes and confidence toward creative writing among EFL students.
- 5. It has a significant role in developing other EFL skills, such as writing research accurately and creatively.

CONCLUSION: The participants are made aware of the positive effects of creative writing and how they can use it for their own benefit as an effective communication tool. They are made to understand the importance of the subject.
